

On Mission

Ch. 1+2 (28:21) Filmed March 2002

A church that desires to have a global impact must change its priorities.

Dr. Claytor, Chairman, Board of Trustees IMB, and Dr. Bullington, Regional Leader, West Africa, share their insight and experiences about being On Mission with God by answering the following questions.

Ch. 1 Questions 1-3 (15:03)

What has God taught you about leading a church to be On Mission? (2:42)

What impact has short-term mission trips made on your life and your church? (5:43)

What strategic place in World Evangelism do you see volunteers filling now and in the future? (6:38)

Ch. 2 Questions 4-6 (13:18)

What advice do you have for leaders who desire to have their church make a Global Impact? (2:38)

What major adjustments will a church need to make in order to have a Global Impact? (5:23)

Why are there still over 1000 un-reached people groups in West Africa? (5:16)

About this Video

The basis of this video is the response of Dr. Claytor and Dr. Bullington to the questions at the left. These unrehearsed and separate interviews were held in Dakar, Senegal in March of 2002.

The interviews have been combined to provide a comprehensive answer to each question. Background video has been added to illustrate the topic as well as provide snapshot views of various mission areas thought the world.

The video clips are from the archives of CRF Media and include segments from Cote d'Ivoire, Senegal, Peru, Guinea, Argentina, Philippines, Venezuela, and Bosnia.

We pray that through this video you will gain a better understanding of what must be done to lead your church to be on mission with God.
